Summary: The Student DFL at the University of Minnesota, Morris will host Al Franken at 7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 11, in the campus Science Auditorium. Franken, a DFL candidate for the U.S. Senate, will include a stop at UMM during his college week tour.

(October 9, 2007)-The Student DFL at the University of Minnesota, Morris will host Al Franken at 7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 11, in the campus Science Auditorium. Franken, a DFL candidate for the U.S. Senate, will include a stop at UMM during his college week tour.

"We're excited that the Student DFL, an organization begun and run by students, is able to bring a U.S. Senate candidate to Morris," said Tara Welch, event organizer, and Adam Olson, chair of the Student DFL. "This is one of many examples of how UMM students are engaged in shaping their own future."

Franken will meet with students and answer questions during his visits to Macalester College, Minnesota State University Moorhead, St. Olaf College, St. Cloud State University, Gustavus Adolphus College and the University of Minnesota, Twin Cities campus, among others.

The event at UMM is free and open to the public.

Through personal and academic discovery, the University of Minnesota, Morris provides opportunities for students to grow intellectually, engage in community, experience environmental stewardship and celebrate diversity. A renewable and sustainable educational experience, Morris prepares graduates for careers, for advanced degrees, for lifelong learning, for work world flexibility in the future, and for global citizenship.
